Thirty-three New Men Are Matriculated

Founder's Day And All Saint's Day Commemorated Simultaneously

Saturday, November 1st, was set aside by the Trustees of St. Stephen's for the celebration of three major events; Matriculation, All Saints' Day and Founders' Day. At nine o'clock, the matriculation ceremony of St. Stephen's was held in its chapel. The ceremony was completed by all the eligible new men formally signing a declaration of their intention to be loyal to their Alma Mater, St. Stephen's, and the ideals for which it exists. The matriculants were: Robert W. Adkins, John C. Anderson, George C. Atkinson, Edgar H. Bailes, Henry A. Best, W. VanKirk Brownell, John Burgevin, Wallace Carr, Robert S. Clarke, E. Yale Clarke, Edward H. Crabbs, Thomas B. Davis, John E. Eldridge, Justin L. Gallanter, Carlton L. Geist, Dwight D. Graves, Harry H. Jones, Rev. Herbert Hawkins, O. H. C., Theodore R. Joseph, Robert E. Kendall, Boswick H. Ketchum, Charles T. Knapp, Louis G. LaBarre, Fred D. Lewis, Charles M. McLean, John Miglior, Ralph T. Milligan, John C. Neesan, Lionel G. Perkins, William J. Sutcliffe and Paul B. Woodruff.

The solemnity of the ceremony was enhanced by a solemn celebration of the Eucharist which followed it. This celebration was in commemoration of All Saints, and particularly our Founders, according to the ancient custom of the college, first established in 1860 by its founder, John Bard.

Conn. Aggies Bow To Scarlet Booters

Maldonado And Spahr Score Two Tallies Each

On Saturday, October 25, after a week of hard practice the St. Stephen's soccer team downed a rather inexperienced Connecticut Aggies aggregation to the tune of 4-3. The game was played at Annandale.

With the bitter defeat suffered at the hands of Stevens Tech. still ranking in their bosoms, the home team had spent a week of intense practice. The men entered the game with the Aggies gratifyingly self-confident.

The game was played in a steady drizzle of rain. From the very outset the St. Stephen's team fought desperately. Before the game was many minutes old, however, the Saints' forward line had the ball past the visitors' goalie. Throughout the first quarter the home team gave a fine exhibition of team work. Gilreath at goal made some beautiful stops when the opponents attempted to score.

Near the end of the first half the Scarlet warriors again scored. Both goals were scored by Maldonado.

Although the second half was a bit more even, the St. Stephen's team scored twice more and clearly showed its superiority. Both goals in this half were scored by Spahr. The game ended with the final score: S. S. C. 4, Connecticut (continued on page 4, col. 4)

Alfred Wins Fast X-Country Race

Saints Defeat Williams For Second Place In Tri-angular Meet

Ever since the new Ward Manor cross country course was laid out, Coach Phalen has been anxious to see what it could be run in by a fast team that was really trying. To that end Alfred University and Williams College were invited to a triangular meet last Friday afternoon in the hope that they would force each other to the limit and that a record would be set that would serve as a good criterion as to just what time humans might be expected to make over the course. It was also hoped that the supposedly mediocre St. Stephen's team would trail along behind and observe how their own course might be negotiated by experts.

The Alfred harriers lived up to all that had been expected of them by finishing in a bunch and making a grand slam of the event. Their orange jerseys made a brilliant sight as they raced in to the finish in fast time and excellent physical condition. The stocky and almost round Mr. Hughes set a mark of 27:48 in a most casual manner. He is an excellent runner and richly deserved all the applause rendered him at the finish. It will be interesting to see what Pritchard and Hamilton can do to that mark next fall.

The big surprise of the meet, however, was that, aside from Sufren of Williams who beat out Bill Weber at the finish by about a yard, the St. Stephen's runners were the ones who gave Alfred what little competition it had. Galizio and Rowe of Alfred were beaten by Weber and Bell and there were four scarlet runners jammed in between the first and second Williams men at the finish. The final score was Alfred 15, St. Stephen's 49, Williams 56.

The summary follows:

Hughes, Alfred	27:48
Vance, Alfred	28:17
Ten Broeck, Alfred	28:24
Razey, Alfred	28:24
Warde, Alfred	28:24
Suffern, Williams	28:40
Weber, St. Stephen's	28:41
Rowe, Alfred	28:47
Bell, St. Stephen's	29:40
Galizio, Alfred	29:47
Sprague, St. Stephen's	30:40
Kates, St. Stephen's	30:55
Ingraham, Williams	31:03
Harris, Williams	31:28
Fisher, Williams	31:35
Burnett, Williams	31:49
Courtney, St. Stephen's	32:13
Morrell, St. Stephen's	32:53
Riley, St. Stephen's	33:34
Migliori, St. Stephen's	34:54
Kendall, St. Stephen's	37:48
Tipper, Williams	did not finish.

The features of the race other than the clean sweep made by Alfred were that Weber set a new course record for St. Stephen's runners, bettering his time of the Middlebury race by 20 seconds. Every man on the local squad ran the course faster than ever before. Bell took 40 seconds from his record time to date and will, if he reduces it eleven seconds in the future, better the best time made by Perella last year. Sprague cut one minute from his best and Kates a minute and a half. Courtney, Morrell, Riley, Migliori and Ken-

Fraternities Pledge Twenty-Three Men

New Men To Be Initiated Next Semester

Midnight, Friday October 31st, witnessed the formal closing of this years rushing season among the fraternities of St. Stephen's campus when the Pan-Hellenic Council distributed bids to new men. On Saturday and Sunday evening at eight o'clock, following an intervening "Silence Period", the returns were received by the Council assembled in the recreation room. Twenty-one men were pledged to fraternities at this time and by Sunday evening the number had been raised to twenty-three. When the buzz, confusion, turmoil and tension of the contest had subsided and light permeated anow, some staid or sophisticated onlookers could note the following divisions:

Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledged seven men;
Robert Atkins, Westfield, Mass.
Ward Courtney, Silver Bay, New York.
Frank Dent, Dallas, Texas
Carleton Geist, Yonkers, N. Y.
Theodore R. Joseph, Brooklyn, New York
Ralph Milligan, See Konk, Mass.
William Schmidt, Richmond Hills, New York
Kappa Gamma Chi pledged nine men;
George Atkinson, Providence, Rhode Island
Henry Best, Woodhaven, N. Y.
W. Van Kirk Brownell, Albany, New York
John Burgevin, Kingston, N. Y.
E. Hamilton Crabbs, Scarsdale, (continued on page 2, col. 5)

French Club Elects Officers For Year

Symonds, Feiker And Perkins Head New Organization

On Monday evening, November 2nd, the newly formed French Club held its first meeting in the Recreation Room. Dr. Wilson, who acts in the capacity of advisor to the club, opened the meeting by proposing that the officers be elected for the coming year. The following men were elected to the various offices: Symonds, president; Feiker, Vice-president; and Perkins, secretary-treasurer. Symonds then assumed charge of the meeting which was conducted entirely in French. French songs and bridge, also played in French, were the principal diversions of the meeting, which ended at ten o'clock after refreshments had been served.

The purpose of the club is to foster interest in French and to increase ability in speaking it, (continued on page 3, col. 3)

Alpha Phi Gamma Elects New Members

At a recent meeting of the Phi Chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, Honorary Journalistic Fraternity of St. Stephen's College, the following men were elected to membership: William Vassillew, Guy Pickering, James Paul, Frank Caldiero, Harry Trefry and Gardner Riley.

Fall Plays Will Be Presented Nov. 13

Program To Schedule Two One-Act Productions

With the coming of autumn and the subsequent touch of cold and frost, there also occurs at St. Stephen's an event which we all pleasantly anticipate: The Autumn Plays. In former years it has been customary to have the plays in December, but this year the date has been definitely set for Thursday, November 13th. The plays are under the direction of Dr. Bell, Dr. Crosby, and Mr. Voorhees. The reason for producing these plays is to try out the new men, so that the best players possible can be selected for our main production which occurs sometime in the early part of the second semester.

For this year two rather long one act plays have been selected. "In April Once" is the title of a poetic, romantic tragedy in blank verse, by William Alexander Percy.

The scene of the play is placed in Florence and the time is about 1280. W. A. Percy, the author of this play, is one of our leading, younger American poets. He is forty-five years old. He received his A. B. from the University of the South and a law degree from Harvard. Since his graduation he has been practicing law in Greenville, Miss. His first book of poems was published in 1915 and recently a complete collection of his poems has been published by the Yale Press. The cast of this play is wholly a new one except for the popular Mr. Pickering.

The other play to be produced is "Lend Me Five Shillings," by John Morton, Esq. It is a decided farce, artificial but extremely funny. The late Joseph Jefferson used it frequently, taking the part of Mr. Golightly about whose adventures the play is concerned. The part of Mr. Golightly in this production will be played by Mr. Lowther, who has had considerable stage experience. The scene of the play is in England and the time is about 1816.

Both of these plays are period plays which makes them all the more difficult to act correctly, but this will undoubtedly be overcome before they are presented. All the actors are inexperienced except for Mr. Pickering and Mr. Lowther, but Dr. Bell sees no reason

S. S. C. Wins Final Soccer Game

Total Score for Season—Saints 14, Opponents 19

On Saturday, November 8, St. Stephen's won the final game of the soccer season here by defeating Hamilton to the tune of 6-4. Throughout the fray the home team clearly indicated its superiority over the lads from Clinton.

At the opening whistle the Scarlet players carried the ball far into the opposition's territory and several times threatened to score. St. Stephen's scored first when Good succeeded in getting the ball past the Hamilton goalie. A few moments later, Spahr scored the second goal after a pretty corner kick by Symons. Shortly after this, Hamilton scored, and the first period ended with the score; S. S. C. 2, H. 1. In the second period each team succeeded in scoring once and the half ended with the score 3-2 in favor of the home team. Throughout the half, the Saints had outplayed their rivals.

In the third period, St. Stephen's scored once more, but lost its lead by fouls. During this period, the Hamilton outfit scored twice to tie the score. In each case, the goal was scored by Redmond on penalty kicks. The period ended with the game knotted at 4 apiece.

In the last quarter, however, St. Stephen's crashed through with two scores and won the game by a score of 6-4. Good and Spahr scored the two final goals.

Basketball Season Opens December 3

First Game With Arnold College

With the longest and hardest schedule on record here, the basketball season will open for St. Stephen's on Wednesday, December 3, when the Saints meet Arnold College at Annandale.

The prospects at present are not any too bright as only three letter men have returned. These are Captain Fusscas, Good, and Symons. Other men from last year's squad who will be out for the team are Fried, Everett, Paul, Maldonado, and Mitten. Coach Banks is in hopes that some of these men will develop and be of real value. Bold, a sophomore, has also signified his intentions of coming out. Besides these men there are several Freshmen. Much is expected of Burgevin, Woodruff, and Adkins. Migliori and Lewis make up the remainder of the list.

The coach intends to retain fifteen men who will make up the squad. These men, and only these, will play in the varsity and junior varsity games.

The team will be captained this year by Jimmie Fusscas who has been a letter man for three years. The manager is Carl Sprague, '31.

in this that the plays should not be better than ever. Dr. Bell does not expect to take these plays on tour, but it is possible that they may be given in one or two of the high schools in this vicinity.

An Annual

No sooner has the recent Sketch-Book difficulty been cleared up than the present Senior class votes to publish another such volume this year. Many long years ago someone said that 'experience is the best teacher.' We wonder if everyone must prove the truth of this adage for himself? If we could only try to profit by the experiences of others, we could probably save ourselves the oftentimes needless difficulties which are met in discovering for ourselves things which have already been well proven.

It is well to experiment objectively, we grant, but it is also as well to experiment subjectively. It seems that enough of this latter kind of experimentation has been made during the past four years, though probably unconsciously, to assure each of us the folly in trying to publish a Year Book for this College. The mechanism of compiling such a volume is quite complex and the work involved is too great in proportion to the actual possible accomplishment to make the proposition sensible, under the existing circumstances on our campus.

Obviously, on the face of the question, it should be possible to publish a Year Book here. However, the cost of printing a really presentable volume for so small a number of subscribers is tremendous. The great majority of St. Stephen's students will not pay enough to make it possible for any staff to print a worthwhile book. This has been attested to by student action and opinion on this very situation during the past four years. No matter how strict a financial committee is, it is obvious that a given sum of money cannot be stretched indefinitely. A poor Year Book is a horrible advertisement for any institution, more especially for a college.

The resources this year are no greater than they have been in past years. The abolishment of the Messenger has not increased the advertising field for any publication; it has merely lessened the demand for charitable gifts from the single field, which remains constant. Of course, the possibility remains that sufficient money can be raised from our limited resources to enable the to-be-elected staff to publish some sort of book and call it an Annual. We maintain, however, that a really good book cannot be published for any price which the students of this college will pay. Therefore, we heartily suggest that the fantastic idea of publishing another Annual be given wings.

A Mutual Appeal

Before all the effects of this year's rushing season are lost to us it would seem that the present is an opportune time for considering some plan by which there can be maintained more normalcy and balance in the campus life here at this season than there has been this year or in any other year within the writer's experience. It has been very evident that the shortening of the "scramble period" has, instead of efficiently remedying the evils thereof, rather so concentrated them all that even the innocent bystander has become detrimentally involved.

We have heard of schools wherein new men are not pledged until their Sophomore year,—others wherein these men are not pledged until their second semester has been reached. Within our own University we find already an agreement whereby,—“no freshman entering College in September shall enter any chapter house or club house of any fraternity, nor shall he be entertained by any fraternity or its members before the Monday preceding Thanksgiving”. The system now employed at St. Stephen's which is the source of a great deal of righteous disapproval both from the administration and the students should be revised. It is also our opinion that while doing so the following ideas might be kept advantageously in mind;—that the new men be allowed to enjoy a period of residence on the campus during which time they should be unhampered or disturbed by undue social pressures or relations;—that this period should last sufficiently long to afford these men an opportunity for becoming familiar with the demands ordinarily made upon one who desires to realize the success of the primary purpose for his being here. Also, that as a result of a more gradual and more casual introduction to the social aspect of Collegiate life, a saner process of judgement, therefore, might be employed by the individual also much concerned with it.

Finally, why not include here the idea of treating the new men with an attitude of respect such as might be shown individuals who have attained an age whereat they are capable of making their own observations, forming their own judgements and of expressing their own desires? It is our opinion that bids should not be issued to them. (Here, the brethren can appreciate the practical removal of the annual tribulations of the ballots from chapter proceedings).

We therefore believe that if the fraternal organization will undertake to return to the individual those rights, which really are his as a rational human being and as one who has come to a particular institution for the express purpose of developing those capabilities,—the care and worries ordinarily attendant upon the rushing season should be so much more evenly distributed and extended that the resulting condition would be a reasonably close approach to normal behavior.

Dr. Fosbroke Preaches Armistice Sermon

Shows Truth And Righteousness As Way to Peace

The preacher in the chapel on Sunday morning, November 9th, was the Rev. Hughell Fosbroke, D. D., Dean of the General Theological Seminary in New York city. The Sunday was observed in the church as Armistice Day Sunday, and the Dean's sermon was on the subject of War. His text was taken from St. Paul's Epistle to the Ephesians 6:14 "Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness."

The whole of Christendom is moving on toward a repudiation of war. There is a general feeling for world peace. But what is needed, is an objectifying of our faith. The first step in making the world a better world, is to learn the truth of the matter. "Things are what they are, and consequences will be as they will be, so why practice deceit." War means destruction and death, and it's consequences are misery and unhappiness for mankind. With this truth in our possession, there can be no compromise with War, or indifference to its terrible consequences.

In fighting for peace of the world, we must use the weapons God gives us. We are to have on the breastplate of righteousness. Righteousness is an enormously perplexing question for most people. What is righteousness? By righteousness we mean, we must be true to our own standard. There is too much sentimentalism in the talk of "warless world". We must deal faithfully with our own lives, in order to advance the cause of world peace.

If we begin with truth, and put on the breastplate of righteousness, we shall be workers for world peace in a definite and effective way.

Certain Changes In Awarding Letters

Warm Weather Slows Down Runners

Last year the athletic committee drew up rules and regulations regarding the award of athletic insignia. At a recent meeting certain sections were amended to read as follows:

Section 4a. Candidates for the letter in soccer must have played in two-thirds of the scheduled games for one season and have been in active participation an aggregate playing time amounting to at least one half the playing time of the season. They must have also participated in every regular scheduled practice period unless excused by both coach and captain for some legitimate reason.

Section 4b. Candidates for the letter in cross country must have won as many credit points as there were meets during the season. The first S. S. C. man to finish in each race receives five credit points; the second four points; etc., and the fifth man one point. In case two or more runners finish in a dead heat each shall be credited with the maximum number of points but subsequent finishers are not thereby moved up. In addition a candidate must have competed in every intercollegiate meet unless prevented by serious injury or other cause satisfactory to the committee. In addition he must have during the current season bettered the time requirements for numerals.

Section 7. Election of Captains.

The captains of the respective teams shall be elected at the end of each sport season.

Only men who have won the letter during the current season are eligible to vote. Seniors do not vote.

If there be two or more letter men who will be seniors the following season they shall constitute the candidates for captain.

If there be but one such man, then he, together with those juniors who have served longest upon the team, shall compose the list of candidates for captain.

If there be but two letter men left, the senior of the two in point of service shall be automatically elected.

In case both of the above shall have been members of the squad (continued on page 4, col. 3)

A Correction

We wish to correct an error in the last issue of this paper regarding the library staff. Miss Trumper, library assistant of last year, and who was suddenly taken ill at the beginning of this semester, has been granted a leave of absence until February 1st. During her leave, Miss L. Sullivan will assume her duties, but not permanently as stated in the last issue. We hope that our library might grow to such proportions within the next few months that she might be retained. Ed.

St. Stephen's Defeat Mass. Aggies 26—29

Time changes in all things. Two years ago the runners from the Massachusetts Agricultural College came to Annandale and took the Saints into camp with a perfect score. This year, with a squad that looked none to good at the outset of the season, the tables were neatly turned last Saturday when Weber romped home all alone in first place and the rest of the team crashed through for a 26-29 victory.

The race brought out the facts that are paramount in cross country. In the first place Bell, who has been running better than ever all the season, developed trouble early in the race and for three miles fought off the consuming desire (which only cross country men know so well) to quit entirely and thus get an instant's respite from the anguish of cramps and utter exhaustion. In spite of this handicap, however, he kept gamely to the job and finished seventeen seconds ahead of his fastest time over the course last year.

In the meantime Carl Sprague, knowing that something was radically wrong with the man who usually finished well ahead of him realized that it was up to him to (continued on page 4, col. 2)

Improvements Made On K. G. X. Property

Work has been started on the construction of the new drive for the Kappa Gamma Chi fraternity and also the grading and landscaping of the property. The new entrance is to be on the south side of the house, the drive leading up to and forming a circle in front of the porch with a parking space at the west of the house. Work has also been begun on the tennis court for the fraternity which will be located on the site of the old parking space at the east end of the grounds. The work is being done by the state construction company which recently completed the new state road from Madalin to the Red Hook road. The drive and grading will be completed before the Junior Prom, but the landscaping and the tennis court cannot possibly be finished before next Spring. Interior decorations are also being carried on in the old part of the house which consists of painting, papering and the installation of a new heating plant.

This work has been made possible by a legacy to the fraternity from the late Bishop Vincent, a one-time member of the fraternity.

ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE

Columbia University

A college of Arts, Letters, and Science, definitely and officially of the Episcopal Church, but with no ecclesiastical restrictions in the selection of its student body; incorporated into the education system of Columbia University and conferring the University degree.

It combines the advantages of university education with small college's simplicity and inexpensiveness.

The College, founded in 1860, is equipped to teach men who, after graduation, are going into business or into postgraduate schools of medicine, law, journalism, or theology, or into classical, scientific, social or literary research.

The Fees Are:

For Tuition, per year.....$300
For Furnished Room.....$150
For Board in Hall.....$300

The Higher Criticism

On the evening of Monday, October 27, Mr. Ralph Wolfe gave a brilliant piano recital in the college gymnasium. Mr. Wolfe is a Russian, a graduate of Columbia College, where, during his four years of undergraduate life he was an outstanding member of the wrestling team.

Mr. Wolfe is a pianist of distinction, who visits St. Stephen's purely as a token of his interest in the college. The program he selected for the evening is identical with that which he will use at the Town Hall, New York City, on Thanksgiving night. It consisted of a Bach prelude and fugue and a long Mozart sonata; variations and fugue on one of Handel's themes by Brahms; a selection from Schumann; and one of Liszt's waltzes. Some idea of the program's richness may be gotten from this enumeration. The music was played with fine fire and style; to listen to such music was as much of an unusual pleasure as it was an unusual privilege.

only by practice. Membership of the club includes all those taking French 3, 5, and 7, but any other French students will be welcomed.

At the first meeting about thirty members were present. Meetings are to be held once a month on Monday evenings. Various plans are now being formed for the next meeting, with the possibility that a debate or a short French play will be given.

Library Notes

The Hoffman Library is richer by several hundred books received from the Columbia University Library. These books are choice selections from the collection of Dr. E. R. A. Seligmann.

The Hoffman Library has received another expression of generosity of Rev. J. G. H. Barry, D. D., who is at present residing in St. Anne's Convent, Kingston, New York. At this time his gift consisted of fourteen books. Ten of these are fiction including five of Couch Quilior's literary contributions. Another is a book by Sigmund Freud, "Civilization and Its Discontents." David Cecil's, "The Stricken Deer, or The Life of Cowper" represents the field of biography. Two other valuable books are "The Mysteries of Siena," by Piero Misciatelli, and "Our Business Civilization," by James Truslow Adams.

St. Stephen's Defeats
Mass. Aggies 26-29
do his utmost to fill the breach and pull the team to a victory. Consequently he fought it out for second place with McGuckian of the visitors for four miles. At three and a half miles they were but inches apart and both runners feeling that victory depended upon their own personal conflict, put into the scrap all they had. In the end McGuckian was successful so far as second place was concerned but Sprague by his exertions had cut 37 seconds from his best previous time and was in no danger whatever from the man behind him. After the race he confessed to being more tired than ever before. He had reason to be. Half minutes are not taken off record times with nonchalance and ease.

With all the above remarks some question may be raised concerning Capt. Bill Weber. He was in the race, or rather a race, all by himself. After the first two hundred yards it was merely a question of whether he would beat his own record for the course. At the half way point he was eight seconds under but on the long hill he slowed up considerably and finished eight seconds over record time. The warm weather and lack of competition were undoubtedly the reasons for the result. The whole team complained of a lack of pep on the hill due to lack of a stinging, bracing temperature.

The results:

Weber, (S. S.)	28:49
McGuckian, (M. A. C.)	29:49
Sprague, (S. S.)	30:04
Mason, (M. A. C.)	30:10
Bell, (S. S.)	30:14

Kates, (S. S.)	30:57
Salenius (M. A. C.)	31:29
Carpenter, (M. A. C.)	31:29
Morrell, (S. S.)	32:39
Courtney, (S. S.)	33:07

Visitors Run Away With Perfect Score
All on the spur of the moment last week a cross country race was arranged between Monticello High School, winners of the state inter-scholastic meet, and the Junior Varsity. From the standpoint of comparative scores the result was pretty terrible. Monticello got all the first places that counted for anything and won by a perfect score of 15 to 40. The only real contest of the meet was between Perkins of Saint Stephen's and Needleham of Monticello for the honor of ninth place.

Although the local runners were defeated, skunked, beaten, and otherwise relegated to secondary consideration a good time was had by all. This is the first time in the history of cross country at St. Stephen's that there have been enough men who stuck to the squad until this time in the season to make a junior varsity possible. It indicates the proper spirit. As soon as candidates for a letter get the idea firmly implanted that only the very exceptional man gets his letter in one year or even two years, the better it will be for the sport. The vast majority of cross country runners have to be made from raw material after they reach college. In all probability none of the Monticello boys who performed so spectacularly here Saturday will ever make unusual runners in college. The high school star who does so is the exception.

When the time comes that the cross country squad contains six or eight men from each class then things will begin to happen. The psychology of the cross country runner is the psychology of the patient and dogged man. The fellow who wants a letter with three weeks of rather nonchalant effort and careless training is not only due for a large sized piece of disillusionment but is of no use to the team or to the coach. Cross country is primarily the game of the individualist. It is the game of the fellow who can do his stuff out on the course alone, with nobody to applaud or to prod him on. It is the game of the man who can start to train with no visible chance of ultimate success in either the near or distant future.

One other benefit derived from the contest was the fact that it brought high school men to the campus so that they could get acquainted with us and we with them. There will be more such meets next year and it is hoped that some of them will end less unfortunately for the local men.

The distance was 2 miles and the details are given below:

On Saturday, November 1, the Renssalaer team visited Annandale and clearly defeated St. Stephen's by a score of 3-1. The home team put up a courageous fight but the visitors out-pointed it. Craven played very well for the losers as did Nale and Gilreath.
